

Samantha Hofsiss

Samantha Hofsiss received a Bachelor of Fine Art with a minor in Art History from Alfred University, and her Master of Fine Art degree from LIU Post. Samantha's studio practice includes work in sculpture and performance art, and she has exhibited work both nationally and internationally, including the Northern California Women's Caucus for the Arts, and South Korea's Chung Ang University and Jung Gallery. Samantha is also a local Museum Educator leading school tours and programs at Heckscher Museum of Art and Nassau County Museum of Art. She has also taught studio art classes at Huntington Fine Art and LIU Post, as well as adult, children's art classes at The Manes Education Center.