Launching the Frick Estate Lecture Series
Courses in the Humanities and Current Affairs Taught by Experts

Roslyn Harbor, NY - The Gold Coast of Long Island is getting a new and exciting addition to its rich cultural offerings with the start of The Frick Estate Lectures. The series, taught by leading experts in the field, will offer a selection of non-credit personal enrichment courses in art, history, literature, philosophy, music and current affairs. Among the courses for this coming Fall 2019 are: "Musicals of the 1930s," "The Secret of the Great Pyramid," "Van Gogh's Wheat Fields," "Nietzsche: A Philosophical Epitome," "Classicism in Art through the Ages," "Artists on Film," "Dickens' David Copperfield," and "World Politics: America in a New World." The full catalogue of courses is available online at URL HERE.

The program, led by Dr. Kay Hutchins Sato, is designed to offer a rich and diverse learning experience for participants who savor the pleasures of the arts, humanities and current events as well as the challenges of guided discussions. Dr. Sato, a lifelong educator, has worked in the field for over 25 years and has received both national and local awards for her model adult programs. She will be honored at a special luncheon at the Nassau County Museum of Art, where the courses will be taught starting in the fall, on Thursday, June 26, from 12:00 - 2:00 p.m. Dr. Ralph Buultjens will serve as the keynote speaker for this event, and will present a brief discussion of his observations entitled "Making a New World: America and Global Politics." Tickets for this luncheon may be purchased by calling 516-415-1101.

Nassau County Museum of Art is located at One Museum Drive in Roslyn Harbor. The museum is open Tuesday-Sunday, 11 a.m.-4:45 p.m. Admission is $15 for adults, $10 for seniors (62 and above) and $5 for students and children (4 to 12). Docent-led tours of the exhibition are offered at 2 p.m. each day; tours of the mansion are offered each Saturday at 1 p.m.
