

Einav Dembin, PhD

School and Family Programs Educator

Einav works with families and children to encourage artistic expression and investigation, fostering creative growth and community engagement at every stage of development. Using an interdisciplinary approach, she strives to create an inclusive and equitable space for all learners by encouraging participants to draw from their own knowledge, background, and experience. Einav received a PhD in Art History from the University of Texas at Austin, an MA in Material Culture Studies from Bard Graduate Center, and a BA in Art History from SUNY New Paltz. When she's not at the museum, she likes to bake and experiment with new recipes.
